Robert
Dear Mr. McEwen:

Thank you for joining me at my fourth annual summer policy retreat in Wakefield, Quebec. I appreciate you taking the time out of your busy schedule and participating actively in our discussions.

This truly was an extraordinary opportunity to bring together some of Canada's brightest business leaders, thinkers and innovators to focus on the economic challenges our country is facing. In my view the retreat was once again a success.

As a token of appreciation, I am enclosing a group photo we took at the Wakefield Mill Inn to provide a memento of the retreat.

Once again, thank you and I look forward to further discussions.

Sincerely,
